ACCUSED'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO PREVENT INTRODUCTION OF RULE 404(b) EVIDENCE

COMES NOW THE ACCUSED, WILLIAM A. WHITE, by counsel, to respectfully move this Court to determine that the matters identified in the December 4, 2009 letter attached hereto from counsel for the Government are not admissible under Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. The Accused submits that the evidence proposed by the Government is not probative of any fact relevant to the charges pending in this Court, and to the extent that there may arguably be some relevance, the probative value is far outweighed by the prejudicial effect the admission of this evidence would have upon the jury.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM A. WHITE
